All Saints

The Collect

*God of holiness,
your glory is proclaimed in every age:
as we rejoice in the faith of your saints,
inspire us to follow their example
with boldness and joy;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen*

Remembrance Sunday

10 November 2019

- 08:00 Holy Communion at St Mary's
- 09:45 Civic Service of Remembrance at Holy Trinity followed by procession for
- 11:00 Last Post at Castle Grounds
- 10:30 Remembrance Service at St Mary's
- 18:00 Evening Eucharist at St Mary's (no evening service at Holy Trinity)

The main service of Remembrance on 10 November, which the Mayor and many representatives of the county will be attending, will be held at Holy Trinity at 9.45am. At about 10.30am, the procession led by the Friary Brass Band and uniformed organisations will go to the Castle Grounds. The two minute silence will happen there at 11.00am. All are welcome; both parts of the ceremony are likely to be well attended.

The evening service will be a quiet Eucharist at St Mary's at 6.00pm. The girl choristers will be singing.

Taking Communion twice in one day?
Although it is unusual to take part in a Communion service twice on the same day, today is special as we are marking two separate festivals: All Saints' and All Souls'. So please feel comfortable in taking a full part in both Eucharists.

This week we remember in our prayers:

- † In our town: Michael More-Molyneux, The Lord Lieutenant.
- † In our parish: those who open and welcome visitors to Holy Trinity and St Mary's.
- † Those who are sick among them: Robert Alcock and Ken Joyner.

Morning Prayer this week will be said in the Queen's Chapel at Holy Trinity Monday — Thursday at 8.30am and on Saturday at 9.30am before Saturday Coffee.
