

Churchwardens

Holy Trinity: Tricia McIntosh and Helen Parkinson
St Mary's: Mary Howard and Jenny Nockolds

There are four Churchwardens for the Parish of Holy Trinity and St Mary's, elected to serve for three years. Churchwardens have specific responsibilities under Canon Law of the Church of England including representing the Bishop in the parish and being responsible for the church buildings and contents.

On the less formal front, the Churchwardens have a stage-managing role, ensuring that all is set up and ready for the regular Sunday services and other additional civic services and celebrations. Attending meetings of the PCC and other parish groups and working with the clergy team and members of the PCC brings a rich agenda of projects and plans.
